

Shape & Shadow [D, 142 bpm, 4/4]

[Default Arrangement] by Matthew McGinley, Micaela McGinley

VERSE 1:

What if my emptiness is space for more of you
And surrender a trade for what you want to do
What if letting go is taking up something that's of worth
Then Whatever the loss
Whatever the cost I'm in

VERSE 2:

What if my brokenness displays your healing power
And laying down my rights can truly set me free
What if taking up this cross is letting go of the weight I own
Then whatever the loss
Whatever the cost I'm in

PRE-CHORUS 1:

As I walk through the fire
My soul is refined
And my heart ignites for you

Chorus

Empty me of anything that's not of you
Light my heart with holy fire
I wanna burn for you
Let every shape and shadow
My hearts reflection
Look more like you
More like you
More like you

VERSE 3:

How is it wounds and scars unleashed your endless mercy
Our King stepped off his throne to die in perfect grace
I know you gave your all to have my heart so I give my all to you
And whatever the loss
Whatever the cost I'm in

Shape & Shadow -

BRIDGE:

Author of life write your story

Painter of skies fill this canvas of mine

My heart is heavy but you lift my burdens

My flesh my fail me but you're not finished with me yet

You take my feet to deeper waters

You call me out to greater measures

You take me higher from glory to glory

You take me further than I have ever known

Till heaven opens and you come in glory

I will be found chasing all you are

Even now you bring your kingdom and wonders follow

You take what's broken and make it more like you

Make me more like you
