

Still We're Singing [Lyrics, 116 bpm, 4/4]

[Default Arrangement] by Matthew McGinley

VERSE 1:

There's not a song in heaven or on earth that completes glory owed
A million crafted words of praise can't hold a candle to your worth

PRE-CHORUS 1:

For what mind can grasp the end of your power
Who's eyes can see the edges of your grace

CHORUS 1:

Still we're singing Holy Holy
Still we're singing Holy are You
With everything we have Holy holy
Still we're singing Holy are You

PRE-CHORUS 2:

For what mind can grasp the end of your power
Who's eyes can see the edges of your grace
What heart could hold a love that's so unbounded
What tongue could frame a song worthy of your name

INST:

BRIDGE:

Our praise won't let the rocks cry out
Our song will silence the enemy
We'll never find the end to all you are Still we'll try for all eternity (REPEAT)

BRIDGE 2:

We know our song can't say it all
But still we give it all we've got
We can't contain this love that burns so deep
And yet it can't repay the cross

CHORUS 2:

But we'll keep on singing Holy Holy
We'll keep on singing Holy are You
With everything we have Holy holy
We'll keep on singing Holy are You

VERSE 2:

There is a song that we'll sing to his face in response to what we see
But an eternity of these same words
can't hold a candle to your worth

CHORUS 3:

Still we'll be singing Holy Holy
We'll be singing Holy are You
With everything we have Holy holy

Still We're Singing -

We'll be singing Holy are You
