This is the sound when faith breaks out
Heaven is closer than we know
It's just a breath away

I hear it now as every doubt
Is cast by the new wind blowing
We're about to see a move

Lord we want more
More than before
We want to see Your kingdom come

Let every heart declare your name
As we sing holy holy You are holy

This is the sound that bankrupts hell
I see the darkness trembling
The light is crashing in

Join in the shout for lost are found
I see a new tide rising
Oh we're in a move

With hands lifted high
And hearts lit on fire
We want to see Your glory fall

Heaven come down
Till the whole world knows

Darkness will bow
Heaven will shout
